

Before I Say Good Night

Take turns telling this story with your child. See if he or she can look at the pictures and listen to the rhyme to fill in the missing words. WRITTEN BY GAIL E. HEDRICK | ILLUSTRATED BY MELISSA SWEET

It's time for bed. I'll go real soon.
The stars are out, and there's the _____!
(moon)

Oh, wait! I need a little drink, some water from the kitchen _____.
(sink)

It's time to hop up the _____.
(stairs)

I've brushed my teeth. I'll comb my _____.
(hair)

My mom says I'm a sleepyhead!
We'll read a book in my big _____.
(bed)

Get hugs, give hugs, I'm almost ready.
I need my bear; his name is _____.
(Teddy)

Pull up the covers, turn out the light.
It's time for bed, so say, "_____"!
(Good night)
